PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

Plaintiff Dr. William P. Gress respectfully requests that this Court enter an order:

(i) certifying a class for settlement purposes; (ii) granting preliminary approval of the Class Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) in the form of Exhibit 3 to the Agreement; and (iii) appointing Dr. William P. Gress as a Class Representative and Edelman, Combs, Lattuner & Goodwin, LLC (“ECLG”) as class counsel. In support of this motion, Plaintiff states as follows:

1. Plaintiff filed the above captioned lawsuit against defendant, Northwood, Inc. (“Northwood” or “Defendant”) alleging that it violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. §227 (“TCPA”), the Illinois Consumer Fraud Act, 815 ILCS 505/2 and common law conversion, by sending unsolicited facsimile advertisements to Plaintiff and other members of the class.

2. Counsel for Plaintiff and Defendant have reviewed and analyzed the legal and factual issues presented in this action, the risks and expense involved in pursuing the litigation to conclusion, the likelihood of recovering damages in excess of those obtained through this settlement, the protracted nature of the litigation and the likelihood, costs and possible outcomes of one or more procedural and substantive appeals. Based upon their review and analysis, Plaintiff and Defendant entered into the Settlement Agreement, attached hereto as Appendix A.

3. The parties desire to settle and compromise the litigation on the terms and conditions embodied in the Agreement and agree as follows:

a. Class Certification. The parties agree to the certification of a class for settlement purposes only, consisting of:

All chiropractors or chiropractic clinics/offices with fax numbers who were sent a facsimile advertisement by or on behalf of Northwood, Inc., from September 12, 2008 to May 7, 2012, and who were not provided with an “opt out” notice as described in 47 U.S.C. § 227.

Defendant represents that, based on a review of its records, it engaged a third party to send on its behalf facsimile advertisements to approximately 69 unique fax numbers associated or otherwise identified with chiropractors or chiropractic clinics/offices (“Fax List”). Defendant sent a total of approximately 95 facsimile advertisements to chiropractors or chiropractic clinics/offices on the Fax List. Most Class Members were sent only one facsimile advertisement.

b. Settlement Recovery.

(1) Northwood shall pay $35,000 (hereinafter “the Settlement Fund”) to establish the Settlement Fund. The Settlement Fund will be used to provide recovery to the Settlement Class. The Settlement Fund will be divided pro rata per fax number.

Defendant has identified approximately 69 unique telephone facsimile numbers to which the unsolicited advertising faxes were sent.

Payments will be made from the Settlement Fund to those Settlement Class Members who timely submit a valid claim form, after the deductions described in subparagraphs (2), (3), and (4).

(2) Plaintiff's counsel shall submit a request for attorney's fees and costs in an amount not to exceed $10,500 or 30% of the Settlement Fund. This amount shall be paid from the Settlement Fund and shall be approved by the Court.

(3) Plaintiff shall receive, subject to Court approval, an award of $3,000 which will provide an incentive award for his services as Class Representative. This amount shall be in addition to any amount plaintiff may recover as a class member, and shall be paid out of the Settlement Fund.

(4) Reasonable costs of notice and administration will be paid from the Settlement Fund. A maximum of $2,000 from the Settlement Fund will be forwarded to plaintiff's counsel for notice and administrative expenses.

(5) All settlement checks shall be void 60 days from the date of issuance and shall so state on the check. Any amounts remaining in the Settlement Fund 30 days after expiration of the void date on the Class Members' settlement checks shall be paid as a cy pres, with the consent and approval of the Court. The parties recommend Blum's Landing as a cy pres recipient.

c. Class Notice. Within 5 days of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, defendant's counsel shall provide plaintiff's counsel with the Fax List. Within 35 days of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order, plaintiff's counsel or their agent shall cause actual Notice and a Claim Form (Exhibits 1 and 2 to the Agreement) to be sent to the addresses and/or facsimile numbers identified on the Fax List. The first round of Notice shall be attempted to be sent by U.S. Mail.

Within 21 days of the date that the Notice was sent by U.S. Mail, plaintiff's counsel or their agent may send the Notice and Claim Form by facsimile to each Settlement Class Member identified on the Fax List who did not submit a Claim Form or otherwise respond to the Class Notice by that date. In the event notice is sent by facsimile, plaintiff's counsel or their agent shall make at least two attempts to transmit the Notice by facsimile to those numbers where the initial transmission failed.

Plaintiff's Counsel will also post the Notice, but not the Claim Form, and the Settlement Agreement (excluding exhibits) on its website. Class Members will have 95 days from the date of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order to submit claim forms.

d. Class Members' Right to Opt Out. Any Class member may seek to be excluded from the Agreement and the lawsuit by opting out of the Class within the time period set by this Court. Any member who opts out of the Class shall not be bound by any prior Court order or the terms of the Agreement and shall not be entitled to any of the monetary benefits set forth in the Agreement. Class Members will have 95 days from the date of entry of the Preliminary Approval order to opt out of the Settlement.

e. Claim Form. In order to receive consideration provided under the settlement, each class member must timely return a claim form which will be provided with the Notice sent via facsimile and/or U.S. Mail. After the deadline for the receipt of claim forms expires, plaintiff's counsel or their agent will determine the number of valid claim forms received.

f. Class Members' Right to Object. Any Class member may object to the Settlement Agreement by filing with the Court and mailing to Settlement Class Counsel and counsel for Northwood a written objection within the time period set by this Court. Any member who objects to the Settlement may appear and be heard at the final approval hearing. Class Members will have 95 days from the date of entry of the Preliminary Approval Order to object to the Settlement.

4. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(a) makes class certification appropriate in cases where:

- (1) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable,
- (2) There are questions of fact or law common to the class,
- (3) The claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims defenses of the class, and
- (4) The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the class.

Further, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(b)(3) provides that a class action is maintainable if the above prerequisites have been met and:

the court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

As demonstrated below, each of the requirements for certification of a Settlement Class is met.

i. Rule 23(a)(1) -- Numerosity. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1) requires that the class be "so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable." The numerosity requirement is satisfied if it is reasonable to conclude that the number of members of the proposed class is greater than the minimum number required for class certification, which is about 10-40. Kulins v. Malco, 121 Ill. App. 3d 520, 530, 459 N.E.2d 1038 (1st Dist. 1984) (19 and 47 sufficient); Swanson v. American Consumer Industries, 415 F.2d 1326, 1333 (7th Cir. 1969) (40 class members sufficient); Cypress v. Newport News General & Nonsectarian Hosp. Ass'n, 375 F.2d 648, 653 (4th Cir. 1967) (18 sufficient); Riordan v. Smith Barney, 113 F.R.D. 60, 62 (N.D. Ill. 1986) (10-29 sufficient); Sala v. National R. Pass. Corp., 120 F.R.D. 494, 497 (E.D. Pa. 1988) (40-50 sufficient); Scholes v. Stone, McGuire & Benjamin, 143 F.R.D. 181, 184 (N.D. Ill. 1992) (72 class members).

In the present case, defendant has estimated that there are approximately 69 chiropractors or chiropractic clinics/offices who meet the proposed class definition. This plainly satisfies the numerosity requirement.

ii. Rule 23(a)(2) -- Commonality; and Rule 23(b)(3)- Common Questions of Law or Fact Predominate. Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2) requires that there be a common question of law or fact. Rule 23(b)(3) requires that the questions of law or fact common to all members of the class predominate over questions pertaining to individual members. The commonality requirement is satisfied if there are common questions linking the class members that are substantially related to the outcome of the litigation. Blackie v. Barrack, 524 F.2d 891, 910 (9th Cir. 1975). Common questions predominate if classwide adjudication of the common issues will significantly advance the adjudication of the merits of all class members' claims. McClendon v. Continental Group, Inc., 113 F.R.D. 39, 43-44 (D.N.J. 1986); Genden v. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., 114 F.R.D. 48, 52 (S.D.N.Y. 1987); Spicer v.

Chicago Board Options Exchange, CCH Fed.Sec.L.Rptr. [1989-90 Transfer Binder] ¶94,943, at p. 95,254 (N.D. Ill. 1990); Alexander Grant & Co. v. McAlister, 116 F.R.D. 583, 590 (S.D. Ohio 1987). Where a case involves "standardized conduct of the defendants toward members of the proposed class, a common nucleus of operative facts is typically presented, and the commonality requirement . . . is usually met." Franklin v. City of Chicago, 102 F.R.D. 944, 949 (N.D.Ill. 1984); Patrykus v. Gomilla, 121 F.R.D. 357, 361 (N.D. Ill. 1988).

Here, there are questions of law and fact common to the class that predominate over any questions affecting only individual class members. The predominant common questions include:

- (1) Whether defendant engaged in a pattern of sending unsolicited fax advertisements;
- (2) Whether defendant thereby violated the TCPA;
- (3) Whether defendants thereby engaged in unfair acts and practices, in violation of the ICFA.
- (4) Whether defendants thereby converted the property of plaintiff.
- (5) The manner in which defendant compiled or obtained their list of fax numbers.

The settlement class is defined in terms of all chiropractors or chiropractic clinics/offices with facsimile numbers, who were sent a facsimile advertisement by or on behalf of Northwood, Inc. from September 12, 2008 to May 7, 2012, and who were not provided with an "opt out" notice as described in 47 U.S.C. § 227.

Several courts have certified class actions under the TCPA. CE Design Ltd. v. Cy's Crabhouse North, Inc., 07 C 5456, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 67323 (N.D. Ill. July 27, 2009);

Sadowski v. Med1 Online, LLC, 07 C 2973, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 41766 (N.D.Ill., May 27, 2008); Hinman v. M & M Rental Ctr., 06 C 1156, 2008 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27835 (N.D.Ill., April 7, 2008); Lampkin v. GGH, Inc., 146 P.3d 847 (Okla. Ct. App. Oct. 31, 2006); Display South, Inc. v. Express Computer Supply, Inc., 961 So.2d 451, 455 (La. App. 1st Cir. 2007); Transportation Institute v. Promo Dart, Inc., No. 06-2-03460-1 (King Co. Sup. Ct. Wash., Nov. 14, 2006); Kavu, Inc. v. Omnipak Corporation, 246 F.R.D. 642 (W.D. Wash. 2007); Gortho, Ltd., v. Websolv, 03 CH 15615 (Cir. Ct. Cook Co., March 6, 2008); Rawson v. C.P. Partners LLC, 03 CH 15165 (Cook Co. Cir. Ct.); Telecommunications Design Network v. Tex. 2001) (state enforcement action). Several others were certified in a Louisiana federal court, against Kappa Publishing Group, Monroe Systems, and Satellink Paging (The Advocate, Capital City Press, Dec. 28, 2005, p. 1).

iii. Rule 23(a)(3) – Typicality. Rule 23 requires that the claims of the named Plaintiff be typical of the claims of the class:

A plaintiff's claim is typical if it arises from the same event or practice or course of conduct that gives rise to the claims of other class members and his or her claims are based on the same legal theory. The typicality requirement may be satisfied even if there are factual distinctions between the claims of the named plaintiffs and those of other class members. Thus, similarity of legal theory may control even in the face of differences of fact.

De La Fuente v. Stokely-Van Camp, Inc., 713 F.2d 225, 232 (7th Cir. 1983) (citation omitted).

In the instant case, typicality is inherent in the class definition. By definition, each of the class members has been subjected to the same practice as the named Plaintiff, namely they are chiropractors or chiropractic clinics/offices with fax numbers who were sent a facsimile advertisement by or on behalf of Northwood, Inc. from September 12, 2008 to May 7, 2012, and who were not provided with an "opt out" notice as described in 47 U.S.C. § 227.

iv. Rule 23(a)(4) -- Adequacy of Representation. The adequacy of representation requirement involves two factors: (a) the plaintiff's attorney must be qualified, experienced, and generally able to conduct the proposed litigation; and (b) the plaintiff must not have interests antagonistic to those of the class. Rosario v. Livaditis, 963 F.2d 1013, 1018 (7th Cir. 1992).

Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. Plaintiff has retained counsel experienced in handling class actions and claims involving unlawful business practices. Counsel's qualifications are set forth in Appendix B. Neither plaintiff nor plaintiff's counsel have any interests which might cause them not to vigorously pursue this action.

v. Rule 23(b)(3) -- Class Action Is Superior to Other Available Methods of Resolving This Controversy. A class action is the superior method for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy. The interest of class members in individually controlling the prosecution of separate claims is small because generally the class members are unaware of their rights and have damages such that it is not feasible for them to bring individual actions. "[O]ne of the primary functions of the class suit is to provide a device for vindicating claims which, taken individually, are too small to justify legal action but which are of significant size if taken as a group." Brady v. LAC, Inc., 72 F.R.D. 22, 28 (S.D.N.Y. 1976).

The special efficacy of the consumer class action has been noted by the courts and is applicable to this case:

A class action permits a large group of claimants to have their claims adjudicated in a single lawsuit. This is particularly important where, as here, a large number of small and medium sized claimants may be involved. In light of the awesome costs of discovery and trial, many of them would not be able to secure relief if class certification were denied

In re Folding Carton Antitrust Litigation, 75 F.R.D. 727, 732 (N.D. Ill. 1977) (citations omitted).

Another court has noted:

Given the relatively small amount recoverable by each potential litigant, it is unlikely that, absent the class action mechanism, any one individual would pursue his claim, or even be able to retain an attorney willing to bring the action. As Professors Wright, Miller, and Kane have discussed in analyzing consumer protection class actions such as the instant one, 'typically the individual claims are for small amounts, which means that the injured parties would not be able to bear the significant litigation expenses involved in suing a large corporation on an individual basis. These financial barriers may be overcome by permitting the suit to be brought by one or more consumers on behalf of others who are similarly situated.' 7B Wright et al., §1778, at 59; see, e.g., Phillips Petroleum Co. v. Shutts, 472 U.S. 797, 809 (1985) ('Class actions . . . may permit the plaintiffs to pool claims which would be uneconomical to litigate individually.'). The public interest in seeing that the rights of consumers are vindicated favors the disposition of the instant claims in a class action form.

Lake v. First Nationwide Bank, 156 F.R.D. 615, 625 (E.D. Pa. 1994).

5. Counsel for plaintiff and the proposed class believe that the settlement of this action on the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and would be in the best interest of the class members.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully request that this Court enter an order in the form of Exhibit 3 to the Agreement, which (i) grants preliminary approval of the proposed settlement, (ii) appoints Dr. William P. Gress as a Class Representative and Edelman, Combs, Latturner & Goodwin, LLC (“ECLG”) as class counsel; (iii) directs the faxing and/or mailing of the Notice in the form of Exhibit 1 to the Agreement, and a Claim Form in the form of Exhibit 2 to the Agreement, and (iv) sets dates for submission of claim forms, opt-outs, appearances, objections, and schedules a hearing for final approval under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2).
